When selecting each new first-year class, academic performance is the main criterion for admission. The Faculty of Humanities recognizes, however, that some candidates may have other indicators or attributes that demonstrate an ability to succeed at university. This Personal Information Profile is intended to give the selection committee a broader picture of your accomplishments than is possible by grades alone.

A) Please list the top three to five activities that provide evidence of your excellence or achievement in one or more academically-relevant areas.

- 1. _____
- 2. _____
- 3. _____
- 4. _____
- 5. _____

B) On an attached sheet of paper, please explain how these activities are relevant to your ability to succeed at the University. For example, how do they provide evidence of: self-motivation/independence and commitment to the pursuit of personal goals; work/study/volunteer experience that broadens perspectives; accomplishments in developing good communication, time management and problem solving/analytical skills; and/or leadership in group activities? (Please limit your response to a one, single-spaced page, using a 12-point font.)

C) Arrange for a primary referee to submit a letter of reference; preferably from an educator, but it could also be from another individual such as a community leader, coach, supervisor or employer. General character references from a friend or family member will not be considered. This letter of reference should support the statements you make in your application.
